Cummings Lumber Company is not only a family owned sawmill, but also a hardwood flooring manufacturer located in the Northern Tier of Central Pennsylvania. We manufacture square-edge unfinished tongue & groove end-matched hardwood flooring. Cummings is a vertically integrated forest product company with a longstanding reputation for quality and dependability that is unparalleled in the industry. By being vertically integrated, we are able to manage the entire manufacturing process, a beautiful floor begins with beautiful natural sustainable hardwoods. We're proud to be committed to environmental stewardship while giving back to our employees and the community at large.
